ELMWOOD
HIGH SCHOOL
BLOOMDALE, OHIO

To Our Departed Classmates

The Elmwood High School students, staff, and administration dedicate this annual yearbook to three departed, loving friends - our classmates: Ed Burks, John Stewart, and Ken Chambers. These students who were unexpectedly taken from us marked tragedy on a memorable and commemorative year 1975-76, the Nation's Bicentennial. Our love, compassion, and memory rests with their spirits, their families, and their contributions to Elmwood High School. Their friendships, associations, and experiences continue to be shared in our thoughts while they rest in immortality. " 'Tis a blessing to live, but a greater to die; And the best of the world, is its path to the sky." These and the following words of Dr. W.G. Heslop on immortality serve to strengthen our faith and help us to sustain our grief and sorrow. The idea, the dream, the hope of a life beyond the grave is deeply rooted in the soil of humanity. The soul of man is bigger than either time or space. Ours is the thanks to the Carpenter of Nazareth who proved this beyond question, that life cannot be destroyed. Its ending here is only the beginning of immorality with our maker.

The loving attitude and friendly spirit that was given to us from Ed, John and Ken and by which they would no doubt like us to remember them, can be summarized in these verses of Blessent's. "The Ship of Life":

As a little ship we go sailing
On the sea of life.
We have much to encounter
As life presents success and strife.

How we meet each challenge
Is the test that life prepares . . .
A strong faith and true courage
Is so needed to conquer life's cares.

When our faith is faltering and our courage wanes
On this stormy sea of life, we seek
A guiding light to guide us
On a course now dark and bleak.

We can find this guiding light
In our Heavenly Father above.
With care so true and kind
He will gently guide us with His love.

With these thoughts of hope, love and courage for their families and friends, we offer this yearbook from Elmwood High School.

This year's Elmwood Royal Choir numbered 180 members, the largest in the history of the school. One highlight of the year was their Bicentennial musical called, "Spirit of '76". Their tour consisted of 17 different concerts. They sang at Cygnet, Bloomdale, Wayne, Portage, Conneaut, and Kenwood Elementary Schools; Jackson, Cory - Rawson, and Cygnet Junior High Schools; North Baltimore, Cory - Rawson, Arcadia, Northwood, Clay, and Elmwood High Schools; 2 concerts at Southwyck Mall; and a public concert, which was broadcasted live by WFOB. They also cut an LP stereo album of "Spirit of '76". The Royal Choir also presented a Christmas, Bicentennial, and Spring concert to the public and the student body.

The Royal Troubadours also did an outstanding job this year and performed many concerts in the area. They are also planning to sing at the Wood County Fair in August.
